

Sharp-tailed Grouse Viewing Moquah Barrens

The U.S. Forest Service will open their observation blind to the public for the opportunity to participate in their annual Sharp-tailed Grouse survey on the Moquah Barrens.

The blind will be set up near a Sharp-tailed Grouse display ground, or lek, to observe the gathering of grouse during the competitive mating displays.

When: April 14 to May 5, 2012

Time: 1 hour before and 1-2 hours after sunrise
